MONTANA COMMITTEE FOR THE HUMANITIES SETS MEDIA GRANT APPLICATION DEADLINE

MISSOULA --

The Montana Committee for the Humanities (MCH), the state-based program of the National Endowment for the Humanities housed at the University of Montana, has announced Friday, Aug. 15, as the deadline for accepting media grant applications.

Non-profit groups seeking funding for research and scripting, production or distribution of humanities media programs may obtain guidelines and applications by visiting the MCH office at the Alumni Center, University of Montana, Missoula, or by writing P.O. Box 8036, Missoula, MT. 59807.

MCH recently changed its application procedures for media projects according to Margaret C. Kingsland, MCH executive director.

"We now include applications for radio and video projects with the review of applications for film projects," she said. "Applications which are turned down may not be resubmitted in the same calendar year."

Projects partially funded by MCH include "K. Ross Toole's Montana," a telecourse produced by MQTV, Missoula; "Jeannette Rankin: The Woman Who Voted No," a half-hour video produced by Lightbound Productions Inc., Bozeman; "Reflections in Montana,"
